

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ADMINISTRATION

LONG-TERM CARE ADMINISTRATION SPECIALIZATION

UNIVERSITY CENTER - RAPID CITY

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This cross-disciplinary program provides the primary tools and organizational skills necessary to more effectively perform administrative roles. Course work focuses on the practical application of theory and developing an intellectual framework for analyzing and successfully addressing challenges associated with the administrative environment. This program values past work experience and benefits people from a variety of different backgrounds including health care, government, non-profit agencies, law enforcement, and social services.

America is growing older and as a result, faces serious health care obstacles. We offer you the opportunity to be a part of the solution, with a career in long-term care administration. The Long-Term Care Administration specialization prepares you for a career that offers security, stability, high income, and most importantly, the satisfaction of helping others.

GETTING STARTED

Prospective graduate students may apply through the Graduate School at www.usd.edu/grad/how-to-apply.cfm.

The Graduate School forwards completed applications to the appropriate academic department for review. The department will then recommend the admission status of the applicant to the Dean of the Graduate School, who will make the final decision on admission.

Once accepted, students can register online through WebAdvisor at www.usd.edu/webadvisor or through the online form located at <https://www.usd.edu/cde/registration>.
